

Junior Director of Competitions
---------------------------------

Formal role

Following the idea of the Open Tour DoC, the Junior DoC will coordinate the efforts of the 'Junior Rules Group' who will democratically represent the teams, club and school that compete in national junior competition. The DoC will ensure that National indoor and outdoor competition, across the many divisions, happen every year.

Development element

As with anything else to do with Junior Ultimate there can be a certain development element to this roles. As well as ensuring national competition quality, frequency and demand, this role will also work with the committee, closely with the Development Coordinator, in fostering a good competition structure and encouraging more than just national competition. Ideally local competition structures and school competition structure would be best suited to junior ultimate.

Opportunity

This is a huge opportunity to make a difference to the future of Ultimate in the UK, and help the UKU achieve their aspirations of making the UK a world leader in the sport of Ultimate. A volunteer role such as this could be a fantastic opportunity to develop personal skills in management, team work, communication. It has the potential to also show employers depth to your ability as a pro-active change maker.

Require qualities for this roles

There are a couple of required qualities that are needed to make such a role a success, they include;

- A time commitment to ensure the best from the role.
- An ability to communicate to groups and individuals via email, telephone, etc.
- Enthusiasm to be a change-maker and be a part of a committee who share the same ideals for proactive work.

A role such as this would be perfect for someone who was looking for a volunteer role in Ultimate as a chance to enhance their C.V. Many of the current committee and other volunteers have managed to commit time to a volunteer role and benefited greatly from it when it comes to applying to University or for a new career.

Desirable qualities

This role would be suited to someone who has been a DoC previously, at university, club, etc. This experience is not required, just desirable.
